

Do you know what your kids are doing when you're not around?

DID YOU KNOW the area just outside the Sun Valley Resort ski area boundary has been the site of two serious avalanche accidents in recent years? While Sun Valley staff diligently minimize the Baldy in-bounds avalanche hazard each day, the “sidecountry” on the other side of the ropes is unpatrolled and uncontrolled. Join Scott Savage from the Sawtooth Avalanche Center and Sun Valley Snow Safety Director Skooter Gardiner to learn about this terrain and how you can help your kids stay safe.
